

Guernsey Law Firm Launches a New Look Online Presence

Guernsey law firm Ashton Barnes Tee has launched a brand new website, as the firm continues to grow its presence in the Island marketplace.

The website, www.guernseylegal.com, offers an array of features designed to act as a clear and easily accessible resource for clients and the public at large.

Benefiting from a new look, the website has been designed to form an integral part of the services offered by the firm. There are sections dedicated to explaining the firm's areas of expertise, including in the practice areas of litigation, employment, trust and private client, taxation and property. Articles written by the firm's Partners and Advocates on their areas of specialisation are also available to be downloaded from the website.

Particular attention has been paid to give the website a personal feel, with direct links to the firm's Partners and Advocates, who have their own profiles. There are also photos and information about the firm's other fee-earners, all of whom are easily contactable via a simple e-mail link.

Ease of use has also been paramount in the re-design, allowing clients, who include governments, multi-national companies, banks, financial institutions, local companies and individuals, to access the areas most relevant to them quickly and simply through the home page.

Clare Tee, Partner, Ashton Barnes Tee, said about the new website:

"It was important to ensure that our online presence was enhanced to make it absolutely up-to-date and easy to navigate. In developing and launching the new website, we have sought to make our Internet presence both informative and visually exciting. It will undoubtedly prove to be a useful tool for us, for our clients and for Internet users looking for information about our specialist services and the Island's legal sector."

Founded in March 2006, Ashton Barnes Tee has already been recognised by the Legal 500 as a young firm with the potential to grow and expand quickly in Guernsey's highly competitive marketplace.
